About The Fund

Our mission is to implement a wrap-around system that is based on health, wellness, self-discovery, and action planning. We are here to help women experience greater levels of wellness, by targeting all aspects of health and wellness through and including mental, physical, mental and spiritual discovery.

The fund will be able to produce return in capital and investment income through distribution to it’s investors from cash inflows while utilizing the radical tax breaks of the Opportunity Zone program.
